Attempted Assault Notice at St. Lawrence University

St. Lawrence University Security & Safety Department alerted Clarkson University that an attempted assault has been reported by a St. Lawrence student. Because of the circumstances and because the student does not know the identity of her assailant, St. Lawrence University is issuing this alert.

The Security Office received a report that Saturday night, December 8th between 11:20 and 11:30 p.m., a female St. Lawrence student was walking through the campus when an unknown male subject pushed her to the ground and attempted to assault her. The student was able to get away with no injuries.

The unknown male is described as Caucasian, about 6' 3" tall, wearing a black jacket and may be suffering from a leg injury.

If anyone has any information that could assist in identifying the perpetrator, please contact St. Lawrence University Security & Safety at 229-5555, or Clarkson Safety & Security at 268-6666.

Safety & Security reminds everyone it's safer to walk in groups. You should know where the emergency Blue light phones are located and phone Safety & Security anytime for a courtesy escort if walking alone.
