

Letter of Recommendation Guidelines

We appreciate your efforts to assist us in evaluating and assessing this Candidate's overall readiness to live and study abroad for a semester/year.

In your Letter of Recommendation, please speak to your knowledge of this Candidate's demonstrated ability:

1. To perform well in an academic system which relies primarily on self-paced study and little feedback.
2. To exhibit independence and self-sufficiency while separated from current support structures.
3. To practice decision making, judgment, and overall ambassadorial behavior reflecting positively upon the individual, Clarkson University, and the United States of America.
