

STUDENT PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

Cooperative Education Program

Clarkson University is committed to providing the best possible experience for the students who participate in our Cooperative Education Program. To ensure that each student enjoys the full value of this program, it is essential that the students fully understand their rights and responsibilities connected to this program. This document outlines these rights and responsibilities. By signing this document, the student acknowledges that they have read and understand the contents of this document.

As a student in the Cooperative Education Program, I understand and agree to the following:

1. I agree to adhere, and abide by, all Clarkson University's policies and procedures connected to this program that are in force at the time of my application.
2. I agree to abide by all the rules, regulations and policies of the host company or any organization involved with this program.
3. I agree to know, understand and abide by all laws of the countries and states connected to this program.
4. I agree to follow all instructions of Clarkson University's Career Center & International Study Office.
5. I agree and understand that my participation in this program may be terminated at any time if I engage in conduct that is harmful to myself or others, jeopardizes the success of the program or violates the rules and regulations of Clarkson University and its partner employers.
6. I agree and understand that if I am terminated from the program that I would be fully responsible for any and all costs connected to returning me to my point of origin. Furthermore, I agree and understand that I will not be eligible for any program refunds due to the termination.
7. I agree and understand that in the event that I violate any of the above provisions, I may be subject to the following sanctions: loss of academic credit, loss of eligibility to participate in any future programs and referral to the Clarkson University Office of Judicial Affairs for further action.
