

Minor in Digitally Mediated Communication

Clarkson University offers a minor in Digitally Mediated Communication that is available to all undergraduate students with the exception of Communication majors. The minor enables non-Communication majors to focus their electives on issues and competencies in the field of digitally mediated communication. Courses used to fulfill the requirements of the minor include theoretical courses, project-based courses, and issue-driven courses.

To achieve a minor in Digitally Mediated Communication, students must achieve a 2.0 grade average in six three-credit courses, distributed in the following fashion:

A. Students must take four of the following courses:

- COM214 Computer Applications and Concepts
- COM220 Writing for New Media
- COM221 2D Digital Design
- COM327 Digital Video Production I
- COM341 Introduction to Web Design
- COM345 Information Architecture
- COM414 Computer Documentation
- COM427 Digital Video Production II
- COM442 Advanced World Wide Web Interface Design

B. Students must take two additional three-credit COM courses at or above the 300 level.

NOTE : Students may transfer no more than six off-campus credits towards the minor. The chair of the Department of Communication & Media must approve transfer courses.
