

WALLACE H. COULTER SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING
Technology Serving Humanity

Minor in Engineering Science

The Coulter School of Engineering offers a minor in Engineering Science for students who satisfy a minimum of 20 credit hours as outlined below*:

- Satisfy prerequisites (MA131, MA132, PH131, PH132, MA232, CM131 or equivalents) for the three core ES courses
 - 3 Core ES courses – ES 220, ES 250, ES 260
 - 1 Scientific Programming Course (minimum two Cr. Hrs. - ES100 or equivalent)
 - 3 Engineering Electives (minimum 9 Cr. Hrs. — any ES, ME, AE, CE, CH, EE, BR courses for which the candidate has the prerequisites, except ES238, ES300, EE 268, BR 200)
- * not open to School of Engineering majors or Interdisciplinary Engineering & Management majors