

Minor in Law Studies

The minor in Law Studies is primarily designed for students who wish to structure their academic program to help prepare for law school. The minor will also serve the needs of students who want to learn more about the field of law and its many diverse issues and perspectives. All students choosing to minor in Law studies must complete 18 credit hours (six courses) and satisfy the following requirements:

1. LW270 Law and Society I
2. Two of the following areas of Law courses:
 - LW466 Law and the Workplace,
 - LW471 Law and Society II,
 - POL371 Environmental Law,
 - POL400 Constitutional Law
3. Two of the following social issues courses:
 - LW490 Internship,
 - COM428 Public Debate and the Environment,
 - PHIL240 Contemporary Moral Issues,
 - PHIL243 Business Ethics,
 - ANTH332 Cities and Social Justice,
 - PHIL341 Professional Ethics,
 - POL/SOC470 Environmental Policy,
 - PHIL380 Law and Bioethics,
 - POL362 Human Rights Law & Politics
4. One of the following Communications courses:
 - COM210 Theory of Rhetoric for Business, Science and Engineering,
 - COM217 Introduction to Public Speaking,
 - COM410 Theory and Philosophy of Communication
5. LW499 Law Studies Minor Portfolio