

RECORDED LECTURES ACCOMMODATION

- Students who have a qualifying disability and are registered with Accommodative Services have the right to record class lectures for their personal study use only.
- Lectures recorded for this reason may not be shared with other people without the consent of the lecturer.
- The recording equipment and the manner of recording must not present a distraction to the instructor or the class.
- Recorded lectures may not be used in any way against the faculty member, other lecturers or students whose classroom comments are recorded as part of the class activity.
- Information contained in the recorded lecture is protected under federal copyright laws and may not be published without the consent of the lecturer.
- The student must sign this agreement before lectures can be recorded.
- The instructor will be notified before class begins that a student may be recording the lectures due to his/her disability.

RECORDED LECTURE PLEDGE

I, _____, have read and understand the above policy on recorded lectures, and I pledge to abide by the policy with regard to any lectures I record while enrolled in _____.

---

Signature and Date