

Career Resource Websites for International Students

Below you will find a listing of online resources for international students. This listing was developed and provided by the National Career Development Association International Student Taskforce (www.ncda.org).

Foreign-born.com

www.foreignborn.com/study\_in\_us/10-work\_thru\_school.htm

Web resource that walks students through moving to and living in the United States, providing insight into cultural norms, educational requirements, visa logistics and additional resources to support transition and adjustment.

H1 Base Website

www.h1base.com/

This site includes extensive information about the H1B Visa process, sponsorship and job searching for international students and workers. It combines both free and fee services. Incorporated in this site is a list of "H1B Visa Sponsorship – Top Jobs and Professions Ranking." This listing can be found at the following link: www.h1base.com/visa/work/H1BvisaBestOccupationProfessionRanking/ref/1576/.

H1visajobs.com

www.h1visajobs.com

A series of online databases listing over 20,000 United States companies who have recently filed the appropriate paperwork to sponsor an international person for an H-1B visa. It is useful for identifying companies to target in a job search on a Practical Training visa or H-1B visa.

International Student

www.internationalstudent.com/resources/

This is a compilation of a number of helpful resources; the majority of resources offered are free.

International Student Network

www.internationalstudentnetwork.com

An extensive online resource that offers information, resources, services and products for international students, which includes information on international student loans, student health insurance, international calling cards and other useful information to help get students prepared for their time abroad.

International Student Website

www.internationalstudent.com/jobsearch/

This database includes articles, tips, job postings, resume writing, personal statements, test preparation, country work guides, visa and immigration information, and more to support students around the globe with international study and work opportunities. It creates extensive connections to best practices and available jobs/internships to enhance next career step opportunities.

MyVisajobs.com

www.myvisajobs.com/Reports/Top-Visa-Sponsor-2011.aspx

Founded by immigrants in 2006, this site is an information portal and online community for visa job hunters around the world. Its major services include annual and quarterly reports for H1B Visa and Green Card, Customized H1B Visa Solution, Visa Sponsor Profile, Candidate Profile, Resume Service and Smart Apply for job applicants.

Oregon State University Career Services

<http://oregonstate.edu/career/international-students>

A variety of resources international students may find helpful in their job search and career.

Stanford University Career Development Center – Resources for International Students

<http://studentaffairs.stanford.edu/cdc/international-students/interviewing>

This website includes extensive resources for international students, including workshop handouts, resume and cover letter tips, resources for improving English language skills and networking tips. Additionally, this resource provides international students with interview tips for specific topics related to their job search.

The University of Arizona Career Services – Resources for International Students

www.career.arizona.edu/student/student-populations/international-students

The University of Arizona offers extensive resources for international students to support their career development and job search process. Included in this resource is information about visas and what jobs they can be applied to, as well as resources and tips for the job search, resume and interview.

United States Department of Labor

<http://www.dol.gov/>

The Department of Labor administers and enforces more than 180 federal laws. The Wage and Hour Division also enforces the labor standard provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) that apply to aliens authorized to work in the United States under certain nonimmigrant visa programs (H-1B, H-1B1, H-1C, H2A).

University of Delaware Career Services Center

<http://www.udel.edu/CSC/>

University of Delaware offers access to workshops specifically created for international student populations, as well as access to job search and career development handouts and useful links for international students.

University of Arizona Career Services

www.career.arizona.edu/webresources/career-information-for-diverse-groups/international-students

Resources for international students from cultural adjustment to job searching.

Uniworld

www.uniworldbp.com/search.php

Find American firms and their locations in other countries, as well as firms based in other countries with locations in the United States.

Visajobs.com

www.myvisajobs.com/

This web resource is dedicated to identifying employment opportunities for foreign nationals wishing to live and work in the United States and Canada. The site provides a free listing of employers accepting H1B Visa holders, as well as additional access to job listings for a fee. In addition, the site includes extensive resources around work authorizations, job searching and industry specific information.

More Information

More information/resources for both students and career services professionals designed to assist international students can be found at the site below. Students will find the above websites, as well as books that may be helpful. Career services professionals will find career counseling resources, best practices, books, articles and professional associations.

http://ncda.org/aws/NCDA/asset\_manager/get\_file/64588/resources\_for\_partnering\_with\_international\_students.pdf

Note: Websites/online resources that have been chosen for this list are not meant as an endorsement of the site or information on it. They have simply been identified as potential resources for the international student. You should closely review the information on each site to determine appropriateness and relevancy to your specific situation.