

Ion Freeman TCS '86 lives in Brooklyn Heights, NY with wife Gigi and sons Brooks (TCS '28) and Gordon (TCS '30). He works as a Scala Developer at Bank of America Merrill Lynch Reference Data and serves on Brooks' elementary school's School Leadership Team and PTA Executive Board. Ion is training for the Chicago Marathon, Ion and Brooks are gearing up to start Suzuki Classical Guitar, and the whole family is going to Idaho for the solar eclipse (and Gordon's Fifth birthday!) in August.

Talicia Raggs '90, lives in Los Angeles and continues to work as a television writer and producer. Her most recent work includes Switched at Birth, premiering on Freeform in January 2017 and The Originals on the CW, premiering March of 2017.

Andrew White '90 moved to Seattle this year to work for Amazon's Web Services division on its Route 53 DNS team.

Dawn-Marie Turner '91 lives in Hemmingford, Quebec with her two sons, ages 12 and 14. She is the Human Resources Manager and co-owner, along with her mother and sister, of their family business, Hemmingford Aerospace. Our committed 93-person team manufactures high-precision parts and assemblies for aircraft engines. Working with people and doing what she can to enhance the quality of their lives is what she enjoys most about her position.

Rob Bramhall '92 and his family are doing great. We moved to Carolina Beach almost three years ago after being in Atlanta for 22 years, since Clarkson! I'm working full time for myself still doing development, database, architecture for anything and everything on the internet and in the cloud. My wife, Chrissy, has moved from the hospital floor to working with the Cape Fear Cancer Specialists here in Wilmington. Our three boys Jake, Connor and Nicholas are busy at middle and elementary school with their band, scouts and basketball. We got to take the boys on their first big ski trip to Steamboat this winter and they loved it. We recently bought our second ocean front rental here in Kure Beach and have been busy getting up to perfection. If anyone is nearby or wants to get together for a drink or wants to take a break and stay at the beach let us know! We would love to hear from some of the other folks.

Drew Jarosh '95 is two years into his first four-year term as the elected Treasurer of Saratoga County. As County Treasurer, Drew is responsible for administering the county's accounting and finance operations including receiving all county tax revenue, issuing all county expenditures, maintaining a true accounting of all cash flows, and managing all of the county's investments.

Drew worked for 17 years in finance, banking, investment management and business development in Boston and New York. He moved back to Saratoga Springs, NY in 2002 to become a business owner with his own commercial finance and asset-management companies. Drew is also currently the Treasurer of the Board of Directors of Saratoga's Community Federal Credit Union overseeing credit union policy and strategic planning. He is a Mayoral appointee to the Saratoga Springs Community Development Block Grant committee providing citizen oversight of federal taxpayer Community Development funds. He is also a founding member of the Saratoga's All-American Celebration non-profit group that has organized the annual 4th of July celebration in Saratoga Springs for the past ten years.

After The Clarkson School, Drew attended college at the University of New Hampshire earning a bachelor's degree in Finance in 1998. Drew also holds an M.B.A. from the University at Albany and a Masters in Financial Engineering & Risk Analytics from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. He is nearing completion of a Masters in Public Administration from Marist College and has completed coursework towards a Ph.D. in Public Policy and Finance. Drew married his wife Kate in 2007 and together they have a newborn son.

Margaret Patterson '95 is living and teaching math in Mumbai, India with her husband, Eric, and two kids. It is a grand adventure.

Pua (AhYo) Hoops '96 landed at the University of San Francisco and somehow earned a degree in Biology. She took a commission and served as an officer in the Army for four years, deploying overseas twice. After she got out, she and her husband moved to Arizona where she decided to stay home and raise their three babies. Now that they're all in school, she's working as an ICU nurse and taking classes for her master's degree. She and her family relocated to Ohio about a year ago and she's freezing her butt off - but she sure does love the seasons

Maria (Castro) Dorsey '03 is a Program Manager at Hilite International, a tier one automotive supplier. She manages new product development programs for cam phasing VVT systems. Maria currently lives in Webster, NY with her husband and three year old daughter.

Kathleen (Jones) King, TCS '05, graduated from Clarkson University in 2008 with a BS in Civil Engineering and has since become a licensed professional engineer in three states. She now enjoys a career managing design and construction projects at the University of New Hampshire, and in 2016 she completed her Master of Science in Project Management degree from Granite State College. Kathleen married fellow Clarkson graduate Ryan King in February, 2017.

Neil Mandalaywala '05 finished his undergraduate education at the Albany College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences in 2009 and medical school at Albany Medical College in 2014. He is now currently in Residency Training in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation serving as the Chief Resident for the NYU School of Medicine Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation Residency Program at the Rusk Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine.

Ben Clicquennoi '06 owns a restaurant in Parishville, NY called The Timber Tavern...and still rules at foosball.

Callie Chapman '09 graduated from Clarkson University in May of 2012 with a Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering. She is now the lead Process Engineer on a Product Development team for Autumn Harp, a custom cosmetics and personal care product manufacturer in Vermont. While conducting her role, Callie is also perusing a Masters Degree in Cosmetic Science online through the University of Cincinnati. Outside of work she is kept busy with athletics, enjoying Crossfit, mountain biking and softball in her free time.

Amanda Calton '10 graduated from law school in May 2016 and joined the firm Conboy, McKay, Bachman, & Kendall, LLP as a domestic relations associate in August 2016. She is currently studying to take the February 2017 bar exam. She serves as the national Risk Management Officer for Kappa Delta Chi Sorority, Inc. and has been in that position since July 2015.

Sara Faduski '12 transferred to the University at Buffalo where she received her Bachelors degree in 2014. She is currently in her third year of a dual law/ social work program at the University at Buffalo, and will be receiving her MSW this May and her JD in May 2018. She is also getting married this May, the week after her MSW graduation!

Rosemary Bloodnick '16 is pursuing a B.S. in Environmental and Sustainability Sciences with a minor in Sociology at Cornell University. On campus, she teaches climbing courses with Cornell's Outdoor Education Program, works at the Lindseth Climbing Wall, and is the co-President of the Cornell University Outing Club. In her free time, she continues to hike, climb, and ski as frequently as possible.

