

Michael Woellmer, TCS 1987

After TCS graduation, I transferred to RPI and I have been working in software since then. Currently I am the VP Systems Development Engineering at NBCUniversal. My wife (Cindy) and I have 2 sons - David is a Sophomore at RPI and Brian is doing his first year at Clarkson with TCS.

Marcy Withington, TCS 1987

I am starting a new job as the CFO of the Guggenheim Museum in New York City on March 26th. I have very fond memories of my time in Potsdam (has it really been 31 years??) and still keep in touch with my roommates.

Dan Stec, TCS 1987

Hilary and I continue to live in Queensbury, NY with our seventh grader Peter - we're all doing well. I continue to serve as a member of the NYS Assembly. I am the Ranking Member on the Assembly Environmental Conservation Committee.

Lili Barouch, TCS 1988

I'm still a cardiologist at Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine. My daughter Ariel is now a math major at Carnegie Mellon University, and my son Isaac is following the engineering track at Wilde Lake High School. We all took a trip to Israel to celebrate my grandfather's 100th birthday in January. Steve and I finally decided to remodel our house this year, so that's been keeping us busy. Aside from being up to our elbows in construction dust, life is great!

Kimberly Shoen, TCS 1988

I am alive and well and working as a solo lawyer in southern New Hampshire as I have been since 1997.

Talicia Raggs, TCS 1990

Talicia is currently a writer/producer on NCIS:New Orleans - a show she works to support her travel addiction. After going to Portugal, Spain, and Mexico while on the 3rd season of the Amazing Race, she's since been to France, Italy, South Africa, Iceland, Canada, Cuba, and Egypt. Her focus now is on looking for love... where all the single schoolies at ;-)

Lynne Stackpole-Trip, TCS 1990

I'm married, living in Lisbon, ME. I graduated from Bowdoin College in '94. I work as a Network Engineering Team Lead at Martin's Point Health Care in Portland, ME. I have 2 Gypsy horses, 2 cats, and a chinchilla.

Dawn-Marie Turner, TCS 1991

I am the Human Resources Manager at our family business, which specializes in the precision machining of aircraft engine parts, where I've been working for the past decade. My sons, Christopher and Rowen, are now 13 and 15. We are excited to be moving into a new home on Montreal's south shore with my boyfriend and his teenage sons this summer.

Aleena Banerji, TCS 1992

I am an Associate Professor at MGH Allergy and living in Boston. I have 2 kids ages 7 and 10 years old and love visiting Potsdam!

Alfonso Navarro, TCS 1994

After TCS, I continued through a BSEE program at WPI and worked in portable printing and marine electronics for fifteen years. In 2013, I "retired" from engineering and took up a position teaching high school physics on the south coast of Massachusetts. This past summer, my wife, Nicole and I welcomed our first child, Stella into our family.

Tom Vento, TCS 1994

I graduated medical school from St George's University (Grenada) following 20 years after my father. Completed Family Medicine Residency at University of Maryland. Practicing in Carroll County, Maryland since 2005. Living with wife Tammy, and 2 great kids, Aedan and Mary-Beth.

Britt Mitchell, TCS 1995

I live in UAE and teach Calculus, Statistics, and Physics to Engineering students at Abu Dhabi Men's College. It has been a wonderful nostalgic experience to teach the same classes I took at Clarkson and recall memories from long ago - I'm still amazed that calculators can solve definite integrals these days!). I am active in humanitarian work and spent summer 2016 living in Reyhanli, Turkey (on the Turkey-Syria border), helping university-age Syrian Refugees research universities and scholarships, and volunteering at Al Rahma house for women and children who lost their fathers. I serve on the advisory board of the small non-profit "Human Action International" (<https://www.haio.org/>), which sponsors Rahma House among other projects. In my spare time she loves to play beach volleyball and travel in Asia, Eastern Europe, and the Middle East.

Jonathan Demers, TCS 2001

I was Commissioned into the United States Air Force as a 2nd Lt in 2004 upon graduation from Clarkson University. I've been stationed at Minot (ND), Hanscom (MA), Abu Dhabi (U.A.E), Ft. Belvoir (VA), and Kabul, Afghanistan. I am currently a Major stationed at the Pentagon in Washington, D.C. I am married and have a 7-year-old daughter.

Colin McIntyre, TCS 2002

After I finished at TCS in 2002, I stayed at Clarkson to finish my BS in Civil Engineering. Since graduating, I've worked all over the country for Bechtel, and traveled all over the world in my free time. I am now the Manager of Construction Innovation for our Infrastructure business unit. And by coincidence, I work with a fellow Schoolie from another time, Ira Samm. Small world.

Adam Brady, TCS 2004

I went on to study biology at University of Delaware and then get my PhD at Cornell University. For the past four years I have been working at the NIH studying cellular stress responses. I am now living in Rockville, Maryland with my girlfriend and am slated to start a new position involving safety testing for the pharmaceutical and biotech industry.

Erika Brown, TCS 2006

Hard to believe that I have been out of Clarkson now for 9 years! Doesn't seem that long! In the last year or so, I have bought a house in Fairport, NY. I am still working at CooperVision, a contact lens manufacturer managing IT Projects and have recently earned my PMP (Project Management Professional) Certification. I make a point to come to Clarkson at least once a year to meet up with my roommate from Clarkson and old friends!

Maureen McDermott, TCS 2008

I have been working as an emergency/inpatient care veterinarian at Massachusetts Veterinary Referral Hospital outside of Boston. Spending my free time with my animals and boyfriend!

Amanda Calton, TCS 2010

I'm currently pending admission as an attorney in New York. I'm working with the law firm Conboy, McKay, Bachman & Kendall, LLP in Canton and Watertown and will, after admission, be practicing family and criminal law. I live in Ogdensburg with my six month old mastador, who I named Taco.

Vianca Mercado, TCS 2012

Right after graduating from Clarkson in 2015 I actually went straight into Graduate school where I obtained by Master's in Public Health in May of 2017. Since then, I found my own apartment in Brooklyn, NY, and I work in Manhattan, NY were I do Case Management for a non profit organization. I am building my experience in order to work within the Quality Assurance and program management field where I will be utilizing both my degrees! After going to Switzerland and Italy for the Global experience program with Brenda and Annette's group, I've had severe travel fever, since then I've been to New Orleans, Wisconsin, North Carolina, and a few other states. this year I am hoping to travel to Mexico. I hope everyone is doing well at TCS!

Peter Clark, TCS 2014

I'm currently a senior at Tufts University studying mechanical engineering and pursuing a minor in engineering management. I also sprint on the track and field team here at Tufts. I have accepted an offer to work at Fidelity Investments within its internal consulting group. I see business school on the horizon, maybe in two or three years.
