Short-Term Opportunities Frequently Asked Questions

Summer Study Programs

➢ How much does it cost to attend?
This depends on the program. Many of our partner universities waive tuition fees for our students or provide a reduced tuition fee. Additional costs to consider: housing, books, travel, visa fees and entertainment.

➢ Will I receive credit for the classes I take?
Yes, you should follow the same process for taking a class at any university aside from Clarkson. Refer to Policies under Study Abroad section of our website.

➢ Do all partners provide on-campus housing?
No, if on-campus housing is available it will be listed in the program information. If there is no on-campus housing usually suggestions for off-campus housing are provided.

Global Business Program Trips

➢ How do I attend one of these trips?
There are various processes depending on the trip. Please read the program information from our website and visit Global Business Program. You may also contact the School of Business for more information.

➢ How much does it cost to attend?
The cost varies. Please contact the School of Business.

➢ What are the destinations of these trips?
These trips are listed in CU Global. Click the Search Programs tab and enter UNIV 399 in the keywords field. If the trips have not been updated from the previous year, please contact the School of Business.

Service Learning Programs

➢ How do I attend one of these trips?
There are various processes depending on the trip. Please read the program information and contact the designated person that manages these trips.

➢ How much does it cost to attend?
The cost varies. Please contact the designated person in the program description.

➢ I need to fill out forms to attend this trip. What information will I need?
A PDF of your passport, your health insurance information, at least one emergency contact, and able to fill out your health history. You will also be asked to consent to a trip waiver, medical authorization, and a behavioral contract.
How do I fill out the forms for this trip?

Your faculty trip leader will receive this information from the International Center and forward it to you. There will be a deadline for these forms. This deadline is strictly enforced, please be aware of this date.