

Clarkson University

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF CLARKSON UNIVERSITY HEREBY GIVES SPECIAL PRAISE AND RECOGNITION TO

Griffin, Service Dog to Brittany L. Hawley '19

WHEREAS, the Americans with Disabilities Act recognizes the importance of service animals in ensuring access to workplaces, public events and private businesses; and,

WHEREAS, Clarkson University welcomes the inclusion of service animals trained to assist people in all aspects of education, research and campus life; and,

WHEREAS, service dog Griffin has demonstrated extraordinary effort, steadfast commitment and diligent dedication to the well-being and success of Brittany L. Hawley '19; and,

WHEREAS, Brittany and Griffin have pursued 100 percent together a graduate degree in occupational therapy, attending all of the same classes, lectures, faculty advising appointments, group study sessions, social activities, research projects and clinical experiences, fully making Griffin an equal member of the Clarkson Golden Knights family;

THEREFORE, on the occasion of Brittany L. Hawley's graduation from Clarkson University, the Board of Trustees (unanimously) also recognizes Griffin with an honorary diploma for his along with all the rights, privileges and honors which appertain thereto, and further directs that this commendation of Griffin be recorded in the official minutes of the Board and shared publicly with Brittany L. Hawley '19 and the Clarkson community to further demonstrate the University's complete commitment to access to a high-quality education for all who seek admission and are qualified to enroll.

EXTRAORDINARY CONTRIBUTIONS TO STUDENT SUCCESS

JEAN E. SPENCE '79
CHAIR, BOARD OF TRUSTEES

ANTHONY G. COLLINS
PRESIDENT, CLARKSON UNIVERSITY