

Jennifer Karekos '14 '15

Jennifer Karekos graduated with her Masters in Business Administration (MBA) in 2015 and Bachelors in Biomolecular Science in 2014. She works for Akron Biotech in Boca Raton, FL, where she oversees and manages a portfolio of custom cell culture and supplement projects/products for the cell therapy, gene therapy, and biotech industries. Since graduating, Jennifer and her family (mother, Emily Karekos, father, Peter Karekos '80, '81, and sister, Katelyn Karekos '16 also Clarkson graduates) have remained active in the growth of the Clarkson community in the South Florida area by initiating and maintaining an Alumni Chapter covering Miami to Vero Beach with over 300+ alumni. Along with other alumni chapters and the career center, Jennifer is working to network with other Clarkson alumni in the science fields to expand career opportunities for Clarkson students.