Application & Admission Process for Inbound Exchange Students

Research Clarkson
- What can I study?
- Does Clarkson have the classes I need? Which semester?
- Housing options?
- Extra Costs – flights, travel, visas?
- Approximate cost of living?
- Go to your international office and discuss Clarkson with your advisor!

Apply on-line!
When your home university completes your nomination, you will automatically be emailed the link to the application. Be sure to have all of the items listed in the previous bubble to make applying simple!

Application Processing
We will review your application and contact you via email if there is missing or incorrect information.

Confirm your visa documents are correct by replying to an email from cuisso@clarkson.edu (Rebeca Brown, Assistant Director, International Student & Scholar Services)

Notify Rebeca Brown of your visa interview results

Interact with the Global Ambassadors

Receive your Acceptance Letter from the International Center via email
- Read your Acceptance Letter
- Make your Visa interview appointment
- Complete the class selection worksheet (make sure your home university approves these classes)
- Complete the items listed in your acceptance letter
- Check your Clarkson email account daily
- Review the ‘Newly Admitted Student’ section of our intranet page (need CU log in credentials)

Application dates:
- Fall (late August-mid December)/Full-year (late August- early May): March 1– May 1
- Spring (January- early May):
  - August 1-October 1

Items You Need To Apply
- A PDF of your valid passport
- Completed Certificate of Finances Form (COF) found in the application
- Supporting documents for funding
- English Ability Form completed (found in the application).
- Transcript
- Seven (7) classes you anticipate taking during your first semester at Clarkson. Search here.
  - Choose “search for classes” to search by semester and “browse course catalog” for descriptions.

Receive your Arrival Form!
- Purchase Plane Ticket!
- Pack your bags!
- Arrive at Clarkson!