

CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT

CONSTRUCTIONMANAGEMENT@CLARKSON.EDU

ABOUT THE TEAM

- » Attends a conference and job fair hosted by the Associated Schools of Construction. At the conference, professional construction firms sponsor categories, such as commercial, heavy civil, pre-construction and design-build, and write a request for proposal (RFP) which teams must use to compete.
- » Split into sub-teams in order to compete in as many categories as possible. On the day of competition, each sub-team receives its RFP at 8 a.m. and must submit its final result by 9 p.m.

ABOUT THE MEMBERS

- » Historically, some 20 team members, predominantly juniors and seniors.
- » Mainly civil engineering students.

TIMELINE

FALL LEARN

- » It is recommended, but not required, for team members to take CE407 prior to or during the fall semester in which they plan to join the team.
- » In addition, it is also recommended that team members take CE310, prior to joining, to learn AutoCAD and Revit.

NOVEMBER COMPETE

- » Receive RFP at 8 a.m. and complete RFP proposal by 9 p.m. the same day.
- » RFP submittal includes
  - Multiple copies of project submission.
  - Drawings of project.
  - Schedules of construction.
  - Estimated costs and materials needed.
  - Subcontractor list.
  - Resumes of team members.

Clarkson™